

Name	Date

Fish Tank Design

Design a fish tank that fits into the corner of a room. Use a quarter of a cylinder as a model for the tank. To share your design, make a diagram showing the tank measurements. Also, calculate the weight of the water when your tank is filled (1 m³ of water weighs about 1,000 kg). Write your calculation steps so that a classmate could understand how you did it.

